OF OUR MANY

The hands which have guided us through our many activities at the Chelsea Senior High School are now pointing ahead — to the future. Our hands have worked for scholastic merit, for achievement in sports, and for unity in social activities. Having benefited from proper guidance, these hands will go on to shape the future. Throughout the coming years, when the hands of the class of 1961 are at leisure, we, the executive committee, hope that they will turn the pages of this yearbook.

THAT REACH TO LEARN

The hands of the Chelsea Senior High School students reach in many different directions of learning. No matter in which field they endeavor, they are guided by the most capable hands of our fine teachers.

Chelsea

Mr. J. W. Kennelly, who had been connected with the Chelsea school system as teacher, coach and administrator since September, 1925, made his home at 19 Howard st., Arlington, with his wife, the former Margaret A. Keeley.

Mr. Kennelly was born in the town of North Bellingham, 64 years ago, the son of the late James and Julia (Sullivan) Kennelly. He had his early education in the schools of North Bellingham and attended Horace Mann High School in Franklin where he was an outstanding athlete and captained the baseball and basketball teams in his senior year.

Following his graduation from high school he entered Exeter Academy for a year and the next year enrolled at Bates College in Lewiston, Me. The first World War interrupted his college career and he enlisted May 1, 1917 and was assigned to Kelly Field, Texas as a member of the Air Force. He later transferred to the infantry and served as a corps captain in the 29th Division. He saw active service at St. Mihiel and in the Argonne Forest. He served until Oct. 8, 1919.

Upon his discharge from the service, Mr. Kennelly re-entered Bates College where he won high scholastic and athletic honors. He took part in football, baseball and basketball and won eight letters for his prowess in athletics. He was president of the senior class at Bates and president of the Student Council.

Following his graduation from college, he taught and coached at Uxbridge High School and Rockland High School, before coming to Chelsea High School in 1925 as a teacher-coach. Although he coached both baseball and football at Chelsea High School, he was better known throughout New England as a coach of basketball, which he directed for 16 years.

During his career as a basketball coach at Chelsea High School, his teams played in the Tech tourney every year except 1931 and 1932. His best team was that of 1930, when the club won the Tech and New England tourneys and went on to Chicago to play in the National tournament. The Chelsea team lost its opening game to Tallahassee, Fla., but won its consolation game later in the tourney.

mourns loss of our headmaster

During his teaching career at Chelsea High School, he took special courses in education and administration at the University of Illinois, Bucknell College in Pennsylvania and took courses at the Sorbonne in Paris and as a member of the National Headmaster's Association, attended many conferences in various parts of the country and took an active part in the deliberations. He received his master's degree from Boston University in 1939.

While at Chelsea High School he also continued his athletic career and played basketball for the Rockland Town Team and the Whitman American Legion quintet and played semi-pro baseball in Maine, Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Bill Kennelly gave up his coaching career early in 1942 and devoted his time to his duties as junior master and faculty director of athletics at Chelsea High School until his appointment as headmaster at the Carter School in 1945 to succeed the late William H. Crafts. In 1953 Mr. Kennelly was appointed headmaster of Chelsea High School, following the retirement of Robert R. Webber.

He and Mrs. Kennelly made their home in Chelsea for more than 25 years and resided on the Revere Beach Parkway, near Webster ave. until the house was taken by the state to construct the present Expressway. Then they went to North Everett on Broadway and went to Arlington last September.

Mr. Kennelly was a member of the Chelsea Park Commission for 24 years and was elected chairman in 1938, a position he held at the time of his death. He also served as chairman of the original Youth Commission until his election as a park commissioner.

He was also past president of the Chelsea Rotary club, past exalted ruler of Chelsea Lodge of Elks, past president of the Sagamore Club, the Knights of Columbus; the American Legion and Our Lady of Grace Holy Name Society.

He was the author of a series of articles on basketball which appeared in a well known sports publication and also served as president of the Eastern Massachusetts District Board of Approved Basketball Officials in 1933. He was also a member of the executive board of the Massachusetts State Coaches Board of Basketball Officials.

Administrators

Mr. J. William Kennelly, our competent headmaster, has maintained the high status of the Chelsea Senior High School for eight years. As every student realizes, he is always willing to lend a helping hand, if it is needed.

Deceased, February 24, 1961.

... behind all types of learning

As master of Chelsea High School, Mr. Nathan Margolis is doing a most commendable job in this important position.

The administrators of our school, with the ability of their hands as well as their heads, labor for the advancement of education at C. H. S. Leading in this endeavor is our superintendent, Mr. Herlihy, aided most capably by Mr. Kennelly and Mr. Margolis. Also lending a hand, most efficiently, has been the office staff, under the supervision of Miss Claire Forbes and Miss Genevieve Piontek. The administrators and the office staff have combined their efforts to make C. H. S. one of the best in the country.

Mr. J. Frank Herlihy, superintendent of the Chelsea School system, efficiently carries out his work as leading educator and administrator.

Office

Helping to make the office run smoothly is this staff of efficient young ladies.

Miss Claire Forbes, the senior clerk of our office staff, efficiently controls the clerical details of Chelsea Senior High.

This year's office work is aided by the capable Miss Piontek.

Art

... the hands that create

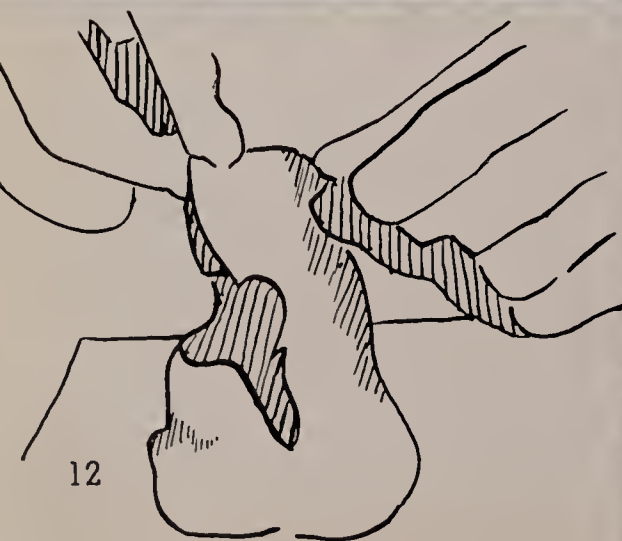

Busily at work are these conscientious artists of Chelsea High School.

With the capable assistance of Mrs. Morrison, how can she miss?

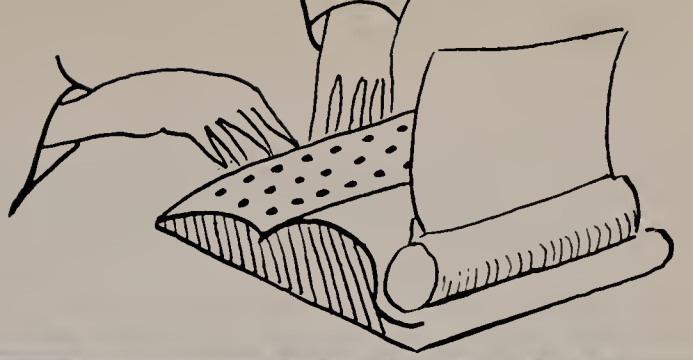

Mrs. Morrison, in her second year at Chelsea High School exercises her extensive experience in delighting her classes with new and interesting adventures in every color medium. Although she believes in a basic program and a functional approach for all students, she caters to individuals in their particular areas of interest. Examples of their work in basic forms of design, city scapes, life drawings and the study of anatomy, lettering, cartooning, advertising, and fashion designing are exhibited in the art room throughout the year.

Not rock and roll, is it?

Commercial

Mrs. Berenson's girls are, as always, hard at work under her capable supervision.

Yes, girls, remember those punctuation marks.

...industrious hands

Training for prospective secretaries in the Commercial Course makes their venture into the business world an easy one. This three-year course, with Mr. White as the head, gives them the training for which they are best suited. With good, responsible teachers instructing them, they are sure to be credits to their bosses. A good secretary is hard to find, but a Chelsea Senior High School graduate of the Commercial Course is always the best secretary available.

That's it, Selene. You're doing fine.

Working hard?

Need some help, Viola?

Time for some dictation, girls.

How's it coming, Judy?

Fancy finger-work!

...which will work for our future

Why the smile, Miss Roberts?

Listen carefully, Joanne.

Sound thinking are the key words in Mr. Stewart's English class.

English

Regardless of the course of studies we pursue in high school or of the course we may pursue in later life, we must successfully master the art of speaking, reading, and writing. A sound knowledge of our native tongue is a basic need if we are to meet the needs for success in our highly competitive society.

At the Chelsea Senior High School we have a fine staff of teachers of English. They patiently train us in these essential phases of study so that we can successfully meet the future challenge.

...hands which write words of communication

A word to the wise: whenever in doubt, consult an English teacher's best friend, the dictionary.

What's the matter, Miss Morse?

Richie seems to be enjoying his English class.

Mrs. Melley seems to be making her point.

Mr. Schwartz is offering a word of advice.

All the students of the Chelsea Senior High School, especially the seniors, are indebted to Mr. Eli Richman, the guidance director and Mr. Edward Brown, the guidance counselor for their able assistance. With their help, we have been able to find jobs as well as to get information concerning colleges and scholarships. Both are always ready to lend a hand when problems arise. They are friendly, frank, and helpful.

The hands of these efficient girls help keep the guidance office running smoothly.

Home Economics

That sure looks good ladies!

Sewing away are the hands of these young seamstresses.

Are those smiles in anticipation of a future apple pie?

...busy homemakers

The home economics department of the Chelsea High School is a most important department. Under the expert direction of Miss Johnson, the girls learn an important necessity for their future lives — namely, how to cook. We all love to dress well and wear stylish clothes. Well, under Miss Wright's supervision, the girls learn how to make their own clothes, indeed an economic ability. This is an important department intended to prepare the future wives and dieticians.

Library

Explaining the purpose of the reading class, Mrs. Kennedy.

...helpful hands

Helpful as usual, Mrs. Kennedy?

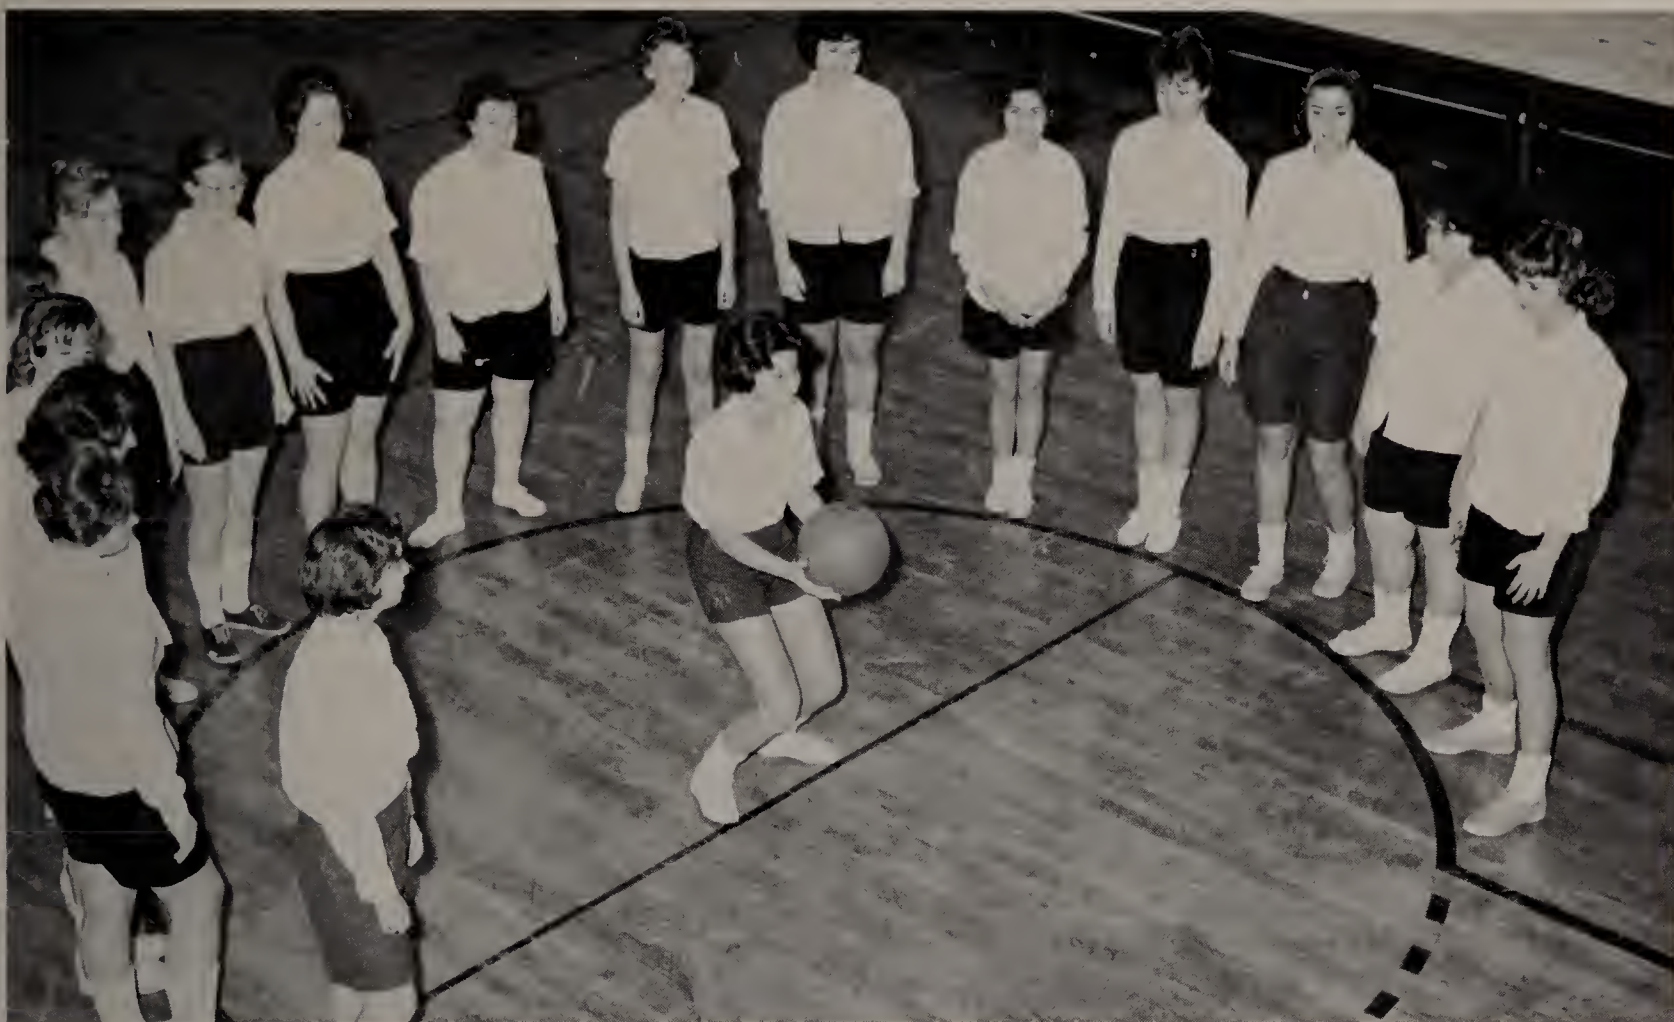

The library has a very important hand in our studies. It has not only an excellent selection of books, but also a fine supervisor, Mrs. Marie Kennedy. She readily co-operates in helping all students seeking aid or advice. By her efforts and patience their needs are anticipated and satisfied.

This year the library has a unique reading acceleration program, an enlarged research center, and new shelves for the science department. Plans for future improvement are always considered.

That's the way! Now make that basket!

Classes in physical education, supervised by Miss Reba Painter, keep the girls at Chelsea Senior High School happy and healthy. They learn good posture and various sports. Basketball, volley ball, badminton, softball, and tennis are enjoyed by all. Moreover, the girls learn the importance of good sportsmanship. This knowledge and exercise adds up to a sound mind in a sound body.

Physical Education

First Aid

In the first aid classes Miss Reba Painter teaches her students the necessity of good health and the techniques of staying healthy. See that smile! She'll be fine now, Miss Painter.

Languages

Parlez-vous français?

The foreign language department at the Chelsea Senior High School, under the direction of Mr. Myer Gootkin, includes Latin, French, and Spanish. Miss Ella Deasy's Latin classes acquire, as always, the best possible training in both prose and poetry. Miss Mahoney and Mr. Gootkin make learning French grammar and conversation très intéressante. The Spanish classes of Miss McKenna and Mrs. Montesano, gain an excellent command of the language. Last, but not least, the German classes, under the able direction of Miss Severence, learn the essentials of this difficult language.

Aufgepasst!

No mistakes, s'il vous-plaît!

Mirabile dictu , Miss Deasy!

Something's funny.

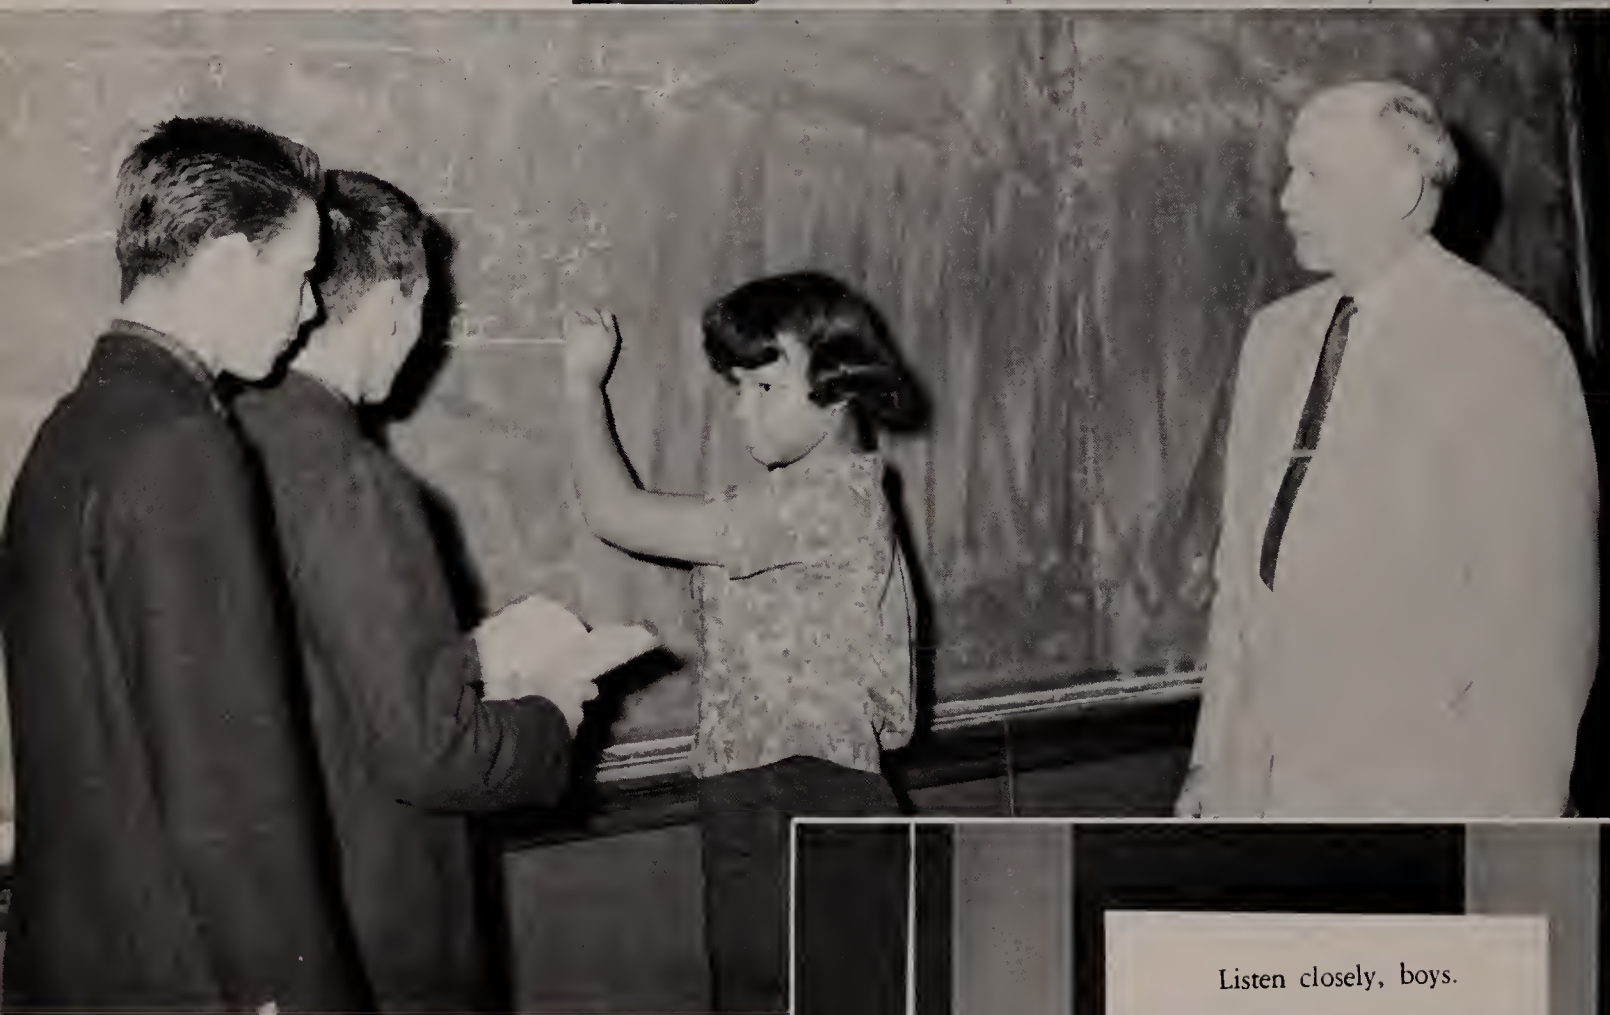

Is that a test, Miss McKenna?

Mathematics

Careful now! That's a beautiful home, boys.

This problem is hard, Mr. Garvey!

Opportunities for men and women in the field of mathematics are continually expanding. Although there is much competition from all over the world for acceptance to various highly rated colleges and jobs, the Chelsea Senior High School has been able to guide the hands of the students in the right direction. It offers excellent courses in every department of mathematics. These include General Mathematics, Geometry, Algebra, Trigonometry, Advanced Algebra, Calculus, Analytical Geometry, Solid Geometry, and some concepts of Modern Mathematics.

Pay attention, class; this chapter is important.

...the hand is the instrument of the mind

Is this the way, Mrs. Mack?

Let's roll, class!

Science

When a student at the Chelsea Senior High School completes a course in either Biology, Chemistry, or Physics, he can be sure that he has obtained the best possible training for a career in the field of science. A basic course in any of the sciences consists of experiments, problems, lectures, and demonstrations as well as textbook information. In addition, the science department, under the capable direction of Mr. Earle S. Anderson, is constantly striving to increase the scientific interests of the students.

What's so amusing, Esther?

Does this make it clearer?

The Social Science Department of the Senior High School serves to increase the knowledge of its students. Through the various Social Studies courses, the student learns about the world in which he lives. He is taught to analyze the facts and to think of the future in terms of the past and the present. In Business Law, another Social Science, a knowledge of basic legal principles, which is beneficial to every individual in his daily affairs, is explained to the student. Finally, the Consumer Education course is offered to those who wish to acquire an understanding of economic principles and problems. The students at C. H. S. are very proud of the school's excellent Social Science Department.

Mrs. Montesano appears pleased at the progress of her Spanish class.

The fundamentals of the English language come alive in Mr. Quinn's class.

Mechanical Skills

The department of mechanical skills instructs students in the fields of printing, woodworking, and auto mechanics.

In the printing department Mr. Barnett Freedman instructs the boys in the proper methods of printing. They also do much practical work such as printing letterheads and forms for school uses.

Woodworking skills are taught to the boys by Mr. Sapino Morelli. These skills give future carpenters a head start toward their desired jobs.

Students are instructed in auto mechanics by Mr. Arthur Hagan. Here the students develop a knowledge of how an automobile works.

Baseball

The seniors of last year's baseball team were admired for their outstanding sportsmanship.

Almost made it!

The baseball team of 1960, although winless, never lost spirit. Credit is due Coach Al Perotti and the boys, themselves, for their enthusiastic teamwork and sportsmanship in keeping this spirit alive during the lengthy season.

Hopes are high for the team's future success; the abilities of five returning starters, including Captain Fred Olivero, promise victory.

The track team, under the capable guidance of Mr. Bernard Berenson, was very successful last year with a record of four wins and one loss.

Outstanding participants during the season were Captain Norman Lopes, John Buckley, Phil Cohen, Paul Casino, and Eric Sidman — captain-elect for this year. Next season the team looks forward to an even better showing.

Higher, Larry!

John has the ball again.

Don't miss, Beaver.

The Chelsea High Basketball Team, under the leadership of Coach Saul Nechtem and Captain Larry Smith, have rung down the curtain on a highly successful season which was climaxed by an invitation to the "Tech Tourney." The record for the 1960-61 season was a fine 14 wins and 4 losses.

This year's team has brought added glory to the name of our school and won the admiration and good will of many people. The team also secured wholesome and invaluable publicity for our community.

Varsity players included seniors, Larry Smith, Capt., John Buckley, Larry Riddell, Barry Bornstein, Fred Olivero, and Steven Bayard; juniors, Harvey Friedman and Richard Wolcott, Co-Captains Elect, and Jerry Udler, sophomores, Lewis Perkins. Richard O'Donald served as manager.

That's the boy, Fred.

Here they come, rough n' ready.

Football

Tackle him, boys.

That was quite a pass!

Raring to go!

Playing a schedule, which has been acknowledged by the Boston newspapers as "the toughest possible nine game schedule," the Chelsea High School Football Team, although outscored the greater part of the season, was never outplayed. That a school as small as Chelsea High would even show up for these games with the strongest teams in the state is a credit to Coach McCarthy and everyone else connected with the team.

Experts on the ice.

In its second season at Chelsea High School the hockey team, showing excellent effort and sportsmanship, won its first game, a 2-1 decision over Revere High School. The rest of the season, however, held the disappointment of thirteen losses.

Despite the gloomy record, the local boys, under the direction of Coach Ray Duran, showed supreme effort in the Metropolitan league where they were out-classed.

Next year the team promises to show a better record with the return of a number of experienced players among them; Mike Glowacki, Fred Caciaputi, Gene Ware, Jerry Tolin and Joe Benevento.

Cheerleaders

Go girls, go!

If he can't do it —

The cheerleaders personify the spirit of Chelsea High School itself. In spite of the weather and with all the vim and vigor they possess, they cheered our boys on to victory and to the GBI Tourney. In these girls is combined all the energy of C. H. S. students in one effort to support our teams (or athletes).

C. H. S. majorettes.

Kicking high is Jeanne Blumer, captain of the majorettes.

Majorettes

Dressed in their bright red uniforms, the Chelsea High School majorettes help to add spirit to our school during the football season. These nine girls can always be seen leading our band onto the football field or representing our school in a parade. Because of their constant effort to attain perfection in various routines, these girls deserve much credit. The majorettes, under the direction of Dr. Guido Ottavi, will always be an asset to our school because they add a little something extra.

...helping hands

The Chelsea Senior High School Chapter of the Junior Red Cross, under the direction of Mrs. Flora Hall, has conducted a highly active program in all phases of Red Cross work. The group has held volunteer programs at the Chelsea Naval Hospital and at the Chelsea Memorial Hospital. The local fund raising drive was a huge success. Also, as part of the international program, gift boxes were filled to be sent to the disaster areas in all parts of the world. Co-operation and understanding have made 1961 a successful year for the Junior Red Cross.

Traffic Squad

The traffic squad, under the capable direction of Mr. Roman F. Pucko, is one of the most important functions of the Chelsea Senior High School. The members are chosen on the basis of attitude and good behavior according to the recommendations of their teachers. The main duty of the squad is to see that the students obey the school rules and regulations. They also must maintain order in the lunch room, act as ushers at assemblies, and supervise the filing between classes. The members of the traffic squad should be commended for their efforts throughout the year in behalf of safety for all.

Seated are lieutenants: John Chiradonna, Frank Sobolewski, Joseph Douglas and advisor, Mr. Roman Pucko.

The Chelsea Senior High School Glee Club has become one of the most popular activities at our school. Under the able direction of Mr. Alvin Toltz, whose never tiring efforts have been the backbone of the glee club, the voices of our girls resound in delightful harmony through the corridors. Meeting twice each week, the glee club can be lauded for its excellent Christmas programs and its performances at the annual Music Festival in Massachusetts.

Latin Club

The Latin Club, under the excellent direction of Miss Ella Deasy, not only acquaints the students with some of the customs of ancient Rome, but also allows them to take an active part in many of the activities which were really essential in olden times. Each program is comprised of skits performed in English and Latin, and quiz shows are conducted with Latin as the basis of all questions.

The Latin Club is an educational and entertaining function for all Latin students. Non Scolae Sed Utae is the motto of the Latin Club.

French Club

The French Club, under the able direction of Mr. Myer Gootkin and Miss Patricia Mahoney, is one of the most popular clubs at the Chelsea Senior High School. Part of the meetings is carried on in French dialogue. This procedure gives the students a practical use of the language they study. Many programs, including skits and quiz shows, are presented. This year the club is planning to complete its activities by dining at a French restaurant.

German Club

The German Club, under the able direction of Miss Ruth Severance, was formed to stimulate interest in the culture and customs of Germany while departing from the usual classroom formality. The students arrange their own programs, which include skits, community singing, and refreshments. The German Band, made up of the musically inclined students, adds much to the gay atmosphere of the meetings and its selection of German folk tunes. Each meeting ends with the singing of the old favorite tune, "Schnitzelbank." In this manner the German Club tries to introduce the customs and gaiety to its members.

Pep Club

The Pep Club, under the leadership of Miss Reba Painter, has been a great help to the athletic teams this year. These are the girls who went to the football games in both good and bad weather, and who cheered the basketball team on to the Tech Tourney. Added to this enthusiasm is the girls' main objective — raising money by sponsoring dances to give prizes to outstanding senior girls at graduation. Some of the students who attended such a dance were guests at the Boston Ballroom telecast.

Three cheers for the Pep Club.

Junior Council

Following in the democratic pattern, the juniors have chosen their own council and have elected their class officers.

With the guidance of their new class advisor, Mr. Ralph Filippone, the juniors ran a unique and successful dance, the Junior Jinx Jump. The highlight of the year was the Junior Prom, toward the success of which the officers and council contributed greatly.

The big choice of the year, class rings, was also made. Sporting their class rings on their fingers, the juniors will have no trouble in following the path of their predecessors.

the Proms

The senior class officers helped make the senior prom a great success.

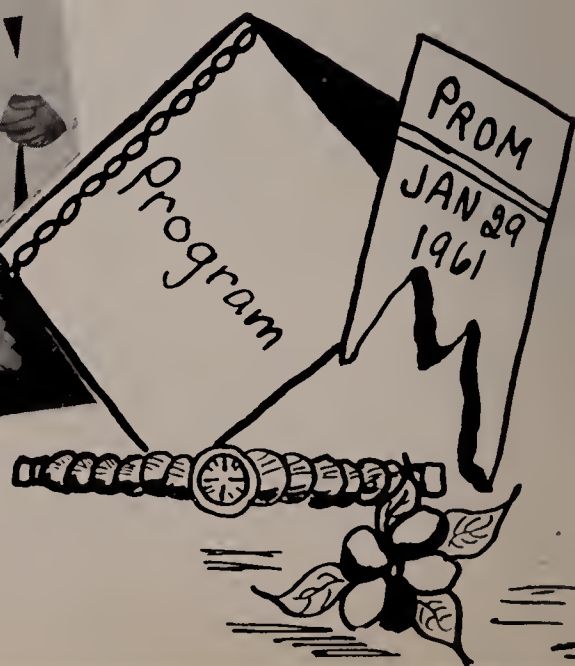

The grand march, led by the senior class president, climaxed an enjoyable evening.

Wonderful memories of the prom are brought back.

Everybody smile.

Mr. Nathan Margolis, Master, with the president and vice-president of our class.

Shall we dance?

Everyone enjoyed this gala event.

...hands joined in merriment

The officers, decorating committee, and band committee of the class of 1961 joined hands to plan the Junior and Senior Proms. Both proms were a delightful combination of music and merriment set in exciting atmospheres. The evenings of the proms were climaxed by the grand march led by the class officers.

My, don't we look nice!

THAT POINT TO THE FUTURE

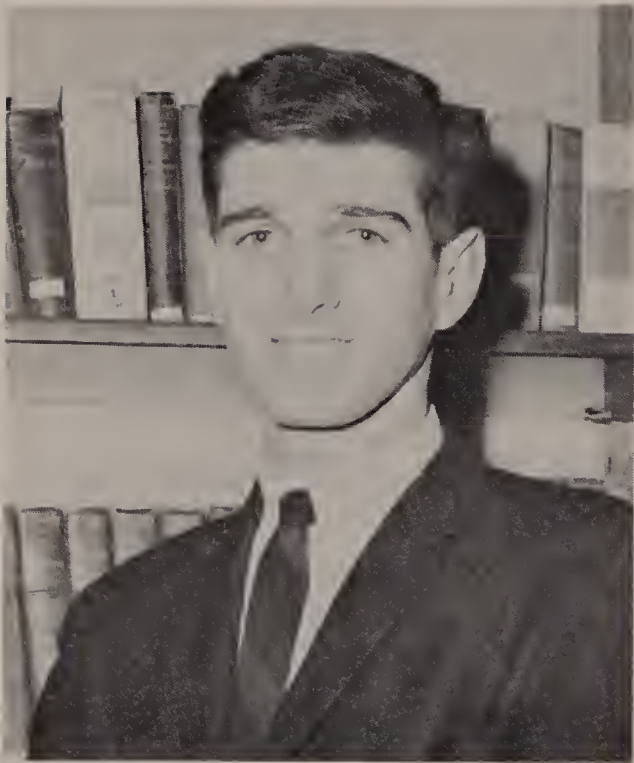

The time is at hand for the seniors of the class of 1961 to go their separate ways. Commencement is not an end, but a beginning of new life, enriched by a high school diploma.

Senior Officers

The officers of the class of 1961 together with the homeroom representatives may be compared to the fingers on a hand. They pointed and paved the way to the success of the Senior Prom, the Winter Frolic, the Senior Play, and to the welfare of the class in general. We, the seniors, extend our sincere thanks to president, Richard Gelerman; vice-president, John Buckley; secretary, Connie Palermo; treasurer, Sandra Montesano; and class adviser, Mr. Aaron Kipnes.

Our president, Richard Gelerman, with his popular and friendly manner, has done an outstanding job in managing our class affairs.

...guiding hands of our leaders

The financial responsibilities of our class have been handled successfully for the past two years by Sandra Montesano, our very popular treasurer.

An all-around athlete, a real leader, and true friend is our Vice-President, John Buckley.

For the past two years, Connie Palermo has done an excellent job as secretary.

Mr. Aaron Kipnes, our senior class advisor, willingly gives of his time to help our class.

Sparkling eyes, a winsome smile, and a lovely charm add up to the best looking girl, Roberta Sofnis. Roberta really tops the poll in looks.

The honor of being the most popular and having the Best Personality goes to class treasurer, Sandy Montesano. All who know her can readily see why.

Superlatives

... pinning the blue ribbon

Richard Gelerman, president of our senior class, is certainly a triple threat man. He was picked not only Most Popular, Most Likely to Succeed, but also Best Personality. We are sure that Dickie will be successful in his endeavors.

Our class has chosen Temma Cohen as the Best Dressed Girl, due to her exquisite taste in clothes and the lovely way in which she wears them.

Topping the poll as Best Dressed Boy is Walter Vickers. With Walter's good taste for clothes, he is sure to be a future success.

Fred Szalkowski, a popular boy, was picked Best Looking Boy. With his looks, he certainly will get ahead, at least with the girls.

The well-deserved honor of being the Most Intellectual is awarded to Bernard Goodman. He is certain to succeed because of his interest in his studies and his great ambition.

Our class unanimously voted Marv Barys as the Most Talented Senior. Mary is fortunate in having real talent as a singer.

Barbara Ginsberg has been chosen the Girl Most Likely to Succeed. In addition to the fact that she receives always top grade, she is admired by all her classmates.

John Buckley, a three letter man, has been voted the Best Athlete of the senior class. He excels in all the sports he attempts.

Senior Play

On April 11, 1961, the familiar theatre warning, "On Stage," was sounded, and the cast for Archie Andrews assembled under the direction of Mrs. Marie Kennedy. The theme provided a hilarious setting for Archie and his family and friends. This teen-age wonder learned that a rumor can cause serious consequences. Believing his uncle to be a gangster, Archie failed to look for the truth. Gossip spread, and eventually the town was ready to evict the entire Andrews family. Action and laughter were continuously occurring, and a thoroughly entertaining evening was enjoyed by the audience.

What's so funny?

Is he that heavy?

Kick high, boys.

The cast is studying their lines.

What expression!

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS

WILLIAM J. HENDI
COMMISSIONER

My, don't we look important!

Serious business, Temma?

He is certainly getting a work-out.

Good Government Day

On February 8, 1961, many seniors of the Chelsea Senior High School were transplanted into the positions of the city government. Good Government Day, sponsored by the Elks Club, and supervised by Mr. Bernard Berenson, afforded to the students the opportunity of carrying out the jobs of mayor, aldermen, school committee, and other appointed offices.

Listen carefully, girls.

Smile, Bobby.

Did you get a raise in pay?

... strong hands of democracy

Listen to the mayor, Sal.

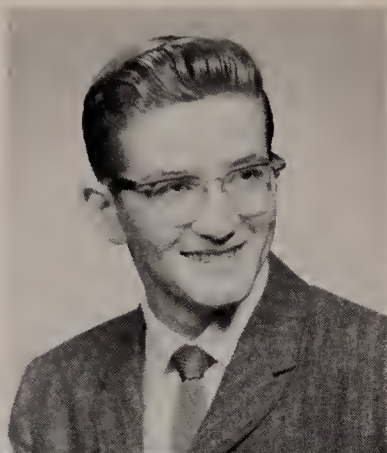

The school committee is really working hard.
